It's nice to have a late rehearsal on a Thursday night with the concerts on Friday and Saturday. The decorations were beautiful. The live stream was really nice. Meet the Artist is coming next week to work with the students. The freshman will be doing something really fun with Meet the Artist.

Committee Updates – Maria said that the popcorn profits for students was $1709.50. For OPA, the profit was $500. All popcorn was prepackaged and picked up by the students. Should we do Puffins for a Spring fundraiser? Maybe Design A Tea? Apparel committee sold five more items for $112. OPA got $11.20. Claudia sent Prism recap. Everything went well. Signup was slow at first but filled up fast. She did the post Prism breakfast. She purchased bagels and cream cheese. The students were very appreciative. Meet the Artist after party will be on January 17.

Old business – Will went online and the flags are $200 to $240. OPA will pay for them.

New business – Will found someone to do the banners that we can use for concerts. We should try and get the banners before we go on break. Amy talked about buying lights for the Warrior Strings Dessert Dinner with the net profit we received. We talked about buying a half dozen of them for now and a storage box. Daryl and Will are going to contact Bob Rogers Travel and maybe other travel companies to talk about the next international trip.

Will makes a motion to adjourn the meeting and Matthew seconds the motion.
