INVITATION TO

UNPLUG

Thank you for attending our first in-person concerts in over 18 months! Tonight's concert is the result of countless hours of rehearsal and practice time for these amazing young musicians. We invite you to unplug, sit back, and allow the music to reach you, body, mind and spirit.

Due to the dark nature of our auditorium, when you check your phone, it illuminates not only your seat but quite a few seats around you.

Please be respectful to others in the audience by not checking your phone until after the concert concludes.

Music relaxes me in a way that nothing else can - whenever I am tense listening to music eases my mind.
~Leela

times
~Braeden

Music is a form of escapement, a way to disconnect yourself from your problems long enough to let you solve your issue.
~Lucas

Music has taught me many things but teaching me to help ease others' pain was the most important.
~Kaelen

Playing my violin and listening to music provided comfort to me during the pandemic as it was something I

~Aliza

And, from a professional...

"Creativity is an eternal/internal canvas. It comes to us in dreams but never sleeps. It is one of the most beautiful modes of human expression. We need music now more than ever to soothe, replenish and nurture the best in all of us." —trombonist Wayne Wallace
